Members and Subscribers

Send changes of address to: APTA, Attn: Membership Dept, 1111 N Fairfax St, Alexandria, VA 22314-1488. Subscription inquiries: 703/684-2782, ext 3124. Physical Therapy is available in a special format for readers who are visually impaired. For more information, please contact the APTA Membership Department at 703/684-2782, ext 3124.

Mission Statement

Founded in 1921, Physical Therapy is the official publication of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) and is an international, scholarly, peer-reviewed journal. Physical Therapy serves APTA members and other health care professionals by (1) documenting basic and applied knowledge related to physical therapy, (2) providing evidence to guide clinical decision making, and (3) publishing a variety of research that is relevant to the field and diverse opinions that are based in scholarly arguments. Physical Therapy, like the profession it serves, strives to enhance the health and well-being of all members of society.

Readers are invited to submit manuscripts to Physical Therapy. The Journal's content—including editorials, commentaries, letters, and book reviews—represents the opinions of the authors and should not be attributed to the Journal or its Editorial Board. Content does not reflect the official policy of APTA or the institution with which the author is affiliated, unless expressly stated.

Physical Therapy Online

The Journal Web site (www.ptjournal.org) posts articles published ahead of print, rapid reader responses to articles, book reviews, and enhanced reference linking for members and subscribers. Journal content, including Journal articles, letters to the editor, and editorials, are available in full-text starting with Volume 79 (1999) and in searchable PDF format starting with Volume 70 (1990).

Indexing/Document Delivery

Physical Therapy is indexed by Abstracts in Health Care Management Studies, Bibliography of Developmental Medicine and Child Neurology, Cumulative Index to Nursing and Allied Health Literature (CINAHL), Current Contents, Exceptional Child Education Abstracts, EMBASE/Excerpta Medica, Health Index, Hospital Literature Index, and Index Medicus/MEDLINE. Journal article abstracts are available online via Physical Therapy's Web site (1990 through present) and via Information Access and Ovid Technologies. Ingenta provides online document delivery for Journal articles published since 1988.

Reprints

Readers should direct requests for reprints to the corresponding author of the article. Students and other academic customers may receive permission to reprint copyrighted material from this publication by contacting the Copyright Clearance Center Inc, 222 Rosewood Dr, Danvers, MA 01923. Authors who want reprints should contact Nancy Boyles, Cadmus Reprints, at 800/407-9190, or boylesn@cadmus.com.

Advertising

Advertisements are accepted by Physical Therapy when they conform to the ethical standards of the American Physical Therapy Association. Physical Therapy does not verify the accuracy of claims made in advertisements, and acceptance does not imply endorsement by the Journal or the Association. Acceptance of advertisements for professional development courses addressing advanced-level competencies in clinical specialty areas does not imply review or endorsement by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties. A Reader Service Card is provided for your convenience in this issue. This card is printed monthly on recycled paper. ♻️

Statement of Nondiscrimination

The American Physical Therapy Association prohibits preferential or adverse discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, gender, age, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, disability, or health status in all areas including, but not limited to, its qualifications for membership, rights of members, policies, programs, activities, and employment practices. APTA is committed to promoting cultural diversity throughout the profession.
